

Beverley Morris & Co.
SOLICITORS

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO CANCEL

As set out in our Terms of Business, if we have not met you in person, under the terms of the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013, you have the right to cancel your instructions within 14 days without giving any reason. This is called the cancellation period.

To exercise the right to cancel, you must inform us of your decision to cancel this contract by a clear statement (e.g.: a letter sent by post or an email). You may use the attached model Cancellation Form, but it is not obligatory.

To meet the cancellation deadline, it is sufficient for you to send your communication concerning your exercise of the right to cancel before the cancellation period has expired.

If you requested us to begin the performance of services during the cancellation period, or should you wish to cancel after the 14 day cancellation period, you shall pay us an amount which is in proportion to what has been carried out until you have communicated to us your cancellation from this contract.
