

Beverley Morris & Co.
SOLICITORS

31 August 2024

To my dear clients,

I hope this letter find you well. I can hardly believe that it has been over 17 years since my sister, Beverley, and I set up the practice of Beverley Morris & Co. and I became a partner.

On the first day, we were both filled with nervous anxiety and trepidation as we didn't know whether the firm would be successful or, indeed, whether we would have any clients. Thankfully, due to you and the contacts we had both made over the years, all our worries proved to be unfounded and the firm went from strength to strength. I would like to thank for your support and kindness and for having belief in me as your conveyancer which helped to build up my confidence. In return, I have always tried to go above and beyond to achieve the best possible outcome for you and to allay your concerns.

However, after many happy and successful years, I feel that the time has now come for me to resign as a partner and retire completely. I hope to pursue other interests and do some travelling. I have just been given the wonderful gift of a grandson in Canada and I intend to visit him as often as possible whilst I'm still active and able to do so.

This has not been an easy decision. I have enjoyed our solicitor-client relationship immensely and the trust you have placed in me. I am truly grateful to have been given the opportunity to be your solicitor and I cherish the connections we have built up over the years. I will always carry the memories of the last 17 years with me going forward.

Rest assured that my colleagues, who will be taking over from me, will aim to give you the same level of care and attention that you have come to expect from me, and that your conveyancing needs will be in capable hands.

Thank you for entrusting me with your conveyancing work and please accept my warmest wishes for your health and happiness in the future.

Kind regards

Angela Stanton
